REACT PROJECT «Recording - Intervention – Tackle Discrimination - Protection of Human Rights»

REACT aims at informing, recording and the management of cases of discrimination as well as to provide support to victims through the operation of Information and Support Offices in Athens, Thessaloniki and Patras. There are also two hotlines available for reporting any kind of discrimination issue that takes place in Greece:

Through mobile phone: 211 0121442 Through landline phone: 800 100 17 78 (free of charge)

Through the implementation of the project, the beneficiaries are informed about dealing with cases of discrimination and be supported in the frame of fundamental human rights protection.

This project is funded by Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway under the EEA Grants Greek NGO Programme “We are all Citizens”. The Bodossaki Foundation is the Fund Operator of this Programme. The Programme aims to strengthen civil society and enhance the contribution of NGOs to social justice, democracy and sustainable development.

PRAKSIS Employability services

Job consultancy services are provided including employment skills training, job orientation sessions, coaching for interview presence, job seeking methodology, CV preparation, free internet access for job search, and networking with potential employers via the Centre’s innovative internet site platform. The Centre provides assistance to people in order to successfully maximize their chances to obtain employment.

Athens Solidarity Center

Athens Solidarity Centre offers use of space to new and existing civil society organizations in Greece. An initiative of the Open Society Foundations and Solidarity Now, in partnership with the Municipality of Athens and the financial support of the European Economic Area Grants, the Athens Solidarity Center opened its doors in December 2014.

The Centre is located on the 2nd floor of the Garrison historic building in Athens, the use of which was granted for this purpose to Solidarity Now by the Municipality of Athens for this purpose. The Centre’s premises have been fully renovated and restored by Solidarity Now.

The Centre is open to all regardless of nationality, origins and social status and cooperates with four Greek NGO: ARSIS, PRAKSIS, Network for Children’s Rights and Together for Children, offering its services to all in need. The services provided at the Solidarity Centre include health, legal aid, job-seeking assistance, and support for vulnerable groups including the elderly, the sick, migrants, and asylum seekers.
